markedly since the last NALC review was undertaken in 2015.

Councillor Peter Gabbott agreed that the Clerk's role needed to be reviewed and that he had already contacted the Lancashire Association of Local Councils (LALC) to request for advice and training on the Clerk's appraisal.

After due discussion it was agreed that a Working Group be set up and in conjunction with LALC and that the Clerks job description and relative position on the pay scale would be reviewed.

FPC

It was hoped that this would be resolved amicably. However the option to have the job officially reviewed by NALC would remain an option at a cost of some £250.00. The Membership of the Working Group be opened up to the FPC in the first instance. The Clerk would provide the base job description for the Working Group to use as a starting point for the review.
